PROPOSED ORDER

This _____ day of _____, 2007, the parties having discussed with the Court the status of the case, the defendants having moved for a hold on all remaining scheduling deadlines until after the decision on the case dispositive motion, and the Court having discussed the issue with pro se plaintiff and considered the issue,

IT IS SO ORDERED that:

1. All deadlines set forth in the Court's Scheduling Order dated March 22, 2007 are hereby held in abeyance until after the Court decides defendants' motions to dismiss and defendants' motion for summary judgment. After the Court renders decisions on such motions, should any claims remain, the Court will schedule a teleconference to discuss scheduling of all remaining deadlines, including setting forth a trial date. In the event an updated scheduling order is needed, defendants' counsel is instructed to send a letter to the Court after the Court issues its opinions to request that a scheduling conference be set.
